

2022 IYSL Online SDGs Innovation Competition

We are proud to present 2022 International Youth Sustainability Leadership (IYSL). This online pitch competition welcomes proposals for social design or responding to the United Nation's Sustainability Development Goals (SDGs) and seek possible solutions to problems in local communities. With our local and overseas partners, this competition brings together students, teachers, and local communities to ponder the problems/challenges in the local context and to join efforts to tackle the problems.

THEMES

- Environmental sustainability
- Climate actions and carbon reduction solutions
- Sustainable economy

ELIGIBILITY

- Open to students currently enrolled in the National University System of Taiwan (NUST) and our Asia Virtual Academy (AVA) partners.
- Team competition with each of 3-5 students.
