

THAKSIN UNIVERSITY

14th May 2025

Dear esteemed partners,

Subject: Invitation to TSU International Social Innovation Camp (TSU SIC) 2025

Firstly, please receive our respectful greetings and heartfelt appreciation for your kind cooperation consistently extended to Thaksin University (TSU).

We are delighted to inform you that TSU is organizing the TSU International Social Innovation Camp (TSU SIC) 2025 on July 12th–18th, 2025, at Thaksin University, Songkhla and Phatthalung province, Thailand. The TSU SIC 2025 aims to encourage our student participants' learning and creativity through problem-based learning (PBL) activities, learn international languages and cultures, and strengthen our relationship.

Therefore, we would like to extend a warm invitation to one undergraduate student from your institution to participate in TSU SIC 2025. The students are responsible for their own air tickets. We will provide them with accommodation consisting of a shared room for eight nights, three daily meals with refreshment, and transportation during the event. Health insurance is not compulsory but highly recommended during your trip in Thailand. The students representing the university must submit their names through the university to TSU Office of International Relations only. If there are more students interested in joining the TSU SIC 2025, the registration fee is $200 each. Please make the money transfer via the bank account, as shown in the attachment.

Thank you for your kind consideration and coordination. If this invitation is acceptable to your institution, please register by May 31st, 2025, before midnight, using the registration form attached.

Should you have any inquiries regarding this event, please do not hesitate to contact the organizing committee via emails at internationaltsu.sic@gmail.com

Sincerely yours,

TSU International Social Innovation Camp (TSU SIC) 2025
12th-18th July 2025 at Thaksin University,
Songkhla Campus, Thailand

Background

Thaksin University (TSU) aims to be the University of Glocalization, developing local communities and achieving international standards. To foster the development of local communities, TSU staff and students have utilized their knowledge and skills from teaching, research, and learning to create social innovations that improve the quality of life for the local population. To meet international standards, international relationships play a crucial role in advancing various aspects such as academics, research, academic service, the arts, and culture. The TSU SIC 2025 offers participants the chance to observe the unique conditions of local communities, understand the lifestyle, needs, and wisdom of the local people, and explore how they can utilize their knowledge and skills to develop innovative solutions for social development.

Objectives

- 1) To promote and foster problem solving skills among students
- 2) To encourage students to creatively apply knowledge and skills to produce innovation for social development
- 3) To enhance positive connections between our university partners

Expected Outcomes

- 1) Social innovation prototypes
- 2) Greater understanding of TSU SIC 2025 participants
- 3) Further collaboration and more network enhancement

Host: Thaksin University

Language: English

Time: 7 days (12th-18th July 2025)

Methods:

All activities will be hosted at Thaksin University (TSU) including problem-based learning and cultural exchange. The participants will visit local communities in Songkhla and Phatthalung Province, Thailand. The host, TSU, will support the participants with

- 1) accommodation
- 2) in-event meals
- 3) local transportation

The participants will work in groups to design a social innovation prototype using the knowledge gained from the site visit and the consultation of the group mentors, who are experts in several fields.
